ALLIES BOMBARD BULGARIAN COAST

By Telegram to The Freeman.
London, Oct. 23.—English and French warships are bombarding the Bulgarian coast on the Aegean Sea. Russian warships are bombarding the Bulgarian coast on the Black Sea.

British troops have reached Serbia prepared to help King Peter's army against the attacks of the Bulgars.

Ports defending Uskub, the most important railway town in central Serbia, are under the fire of heavy Bulgarian guns.

The Serbs are putting up a magnificent fight, but thus far have been unable to stem the advance of the German, Austrian and Bulgarian armies.

Foregoing were the outstanding features of the military situation in the Balkans as revealed in dispatches received here today from Athens, Salonika, Bucharest and Berlin.

The forts defending Dedeagatch have been badly damaged, it is reported from Salonika.

On the Black Sea coast a severe artillery duel was raging between the Bulgarian shore batteries at Varna and the Russian warships.

Ottoman gunners are manning Bulgarian artillery at crucial points. The Bulgars have rushed an immense quantity of heavy artillery to the Serbian frontier near Strumitza where the Salonika-Nish railway runs close to the line with the idea of bombarding the road to prevent the transportation of Anglo-French troops northward.

At least one hundred miles of the Salonika-Nish railroad line is either in the possession of the Bulgarians or else is dominated by Bulgarian artillery.

The rejection by Greece of the offer of the island of Cyprus to help the allies has aroused intense pessimism in official circles of London and Paris. While Greece has not made any definite step toward helping the Teutonic powers she has refused all overtures of the entente powers.

There is a strong fleet of British and French warships in Greek waters.

The situation in the Balkans is still in an incipient stage. Followers of General Maximo Burro Rosales have assembled an expedition at Quintana Roo, within a day's sail of the Honduran coast, and also have purchased munitions and supplies in New Orleans. Rosales is en route to Washington. He says he is coming on a pleasure trip. His enemies declare that he seeks to establish a revolutionary junta.

His grievance is that in order to get around the Honduran constitutional provision which makes a president ineligible to succeed himself, former President Dr. Bertran resigned and named Alberto Menbrano, the present president, as president for a six months' term. Rosales claims that Bertran plans a dictatorship. It is admitted in official circles that this movement may become very formidable at any time.

The situation in Nicaragua has not yet been cleared up by the state department, and details are eagerly being sought. Ever since the ousting of Zelaya in 1909, the United States has kept Adolfo Diaz in the presidency by two companies of marines stationed in the palace at Managua. Recently, however, two movements which are characterized as serious have been started and officials believe that unless additional marines are sent there the situation may get out of hand.

Conflicting explanations are offered for the disorders in Guatemala. It is accepted that an operation is in progress against President Estrada Cabrera, who has been succeeding himself in office for eighteen years. Officials here believe that this movement is being backed by disgruntled Carranzalistas from Mexico and they believe that it can be stamped out as the Guatemalan army is a finely equipped and disciplined one.

However, the entire situation is troubling the administration and special agents of the department of justice are watching the various factional representatives in this country, prepared to make an example of them if there is any violation of American neutrality.

ARRESTED FOR ASSAULT.
Mrs. Griffin Says Benjamin Weisburger Stabbed Her This Morning.

Benjamin Weisburger of No. 478 Broadway was arrested this morning by Chief Wood on a warrant sworn out by Mrs. Elizabeth Griffin of the same address charging Weisburger with assault in the second degree.

Earlier in the morning Mrs. Griffin had appeared before Recorder Lang and told of the assault. According to her story both reside in the same house on Broadway near Hoffman street. This morning about 8 o'clock she was down in the front hall sweeping it out when Weisburger came downstairs. They had some words and she claims he called her a bum and she brushed him out of her way.

He then pulled either a penknife or a knife, she was not sure which, and stabbed her in the breast and on the arms. She showed several deep cuts on her arms, and recorded the cuts on her arms, and asked that a warrant for his arrest be issued. Weisburger will have a chance to tell his side of the story on Monday morning to which time the case was adjourned by Recorder Lang and Weisburger furnished bail for his appearance. It is said that there has been trouble between the families before the affair of this morning.

REVOLUTIONS IN CENTRAL AMERICA

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, Oct. 23.—According to the best information obtainable here the United States will have its work cut out for it for the next few months in preventing the institution of a series of revolutionary movements that will set Central America aflame. Soldiers of fortune who have been serving with Carranza, Villa, Huerta and other Mexican leaders, are now deserting them and offering their services to the perpetual revolutionary juntas maintained openly in New Orleans and other southern cities. And with the Mexican situation far from settled, and with Haiti in such a state that occupancy for five years will be necessary to stamp out the rebellious Cacos, the outlook is far from being reassuring to the state department.

So far as Mexico is concerned the latest information obtainable by the state department is that Villa has about a six months' supply of ammunition on hand and can probably maintain his positions in Sonora for an indefinite time, although he will very likely have to give up all of Chihuahua. The most disquieting news reaching here, however, is that Felix Diaz is co-operating with Zapata and that the combined columns may become a serious menace to Mexico City.

So far as Haiti is concerned, Rear Admiral Caperton and his marines hold the seacoast and some of the roads into the interior. When they begin their planned general roundup of the natives to disarm them serious trouble is certain.

The Honduran revolution is still in an incipient stage. Followers of General Maximo Burro Rosales have assembled an expedition at Quintana Roo, within a day's sail of the Honduran coast, and also have purchased munitions and supplies in New Orleans. Rosales is en route to Washington. He says he is coming on a pleasure trip. His enemies declare that he seeks to establish a revolutionary junta.

SMOKE HELMET A GREAT SUCCESS

For the first time in the history of the Kingston fire department a smoke helmet was used by the members of the department at the fire in the building of the H. S. Crispell Drug Company on Field Court on Friday evening and they found it extremely useful in making their way through the dense smoke caused by the burning paint. The helmet is the property of James Conlia, a member of the paid department and attached to Wiltwyck Hose Company, and was the gift from a friend.

When the firemen reached the burning building they found that it was filled with dense smoke and it was thought that the fire had eaten its way to the second floor of the building. Mr. Conlia in an effort to ascertain if that was so donned the helmet, successfully forced his way through the dense smoke and made a careful examination.

For indications of fire on the second floor but found none. The helmet was also used later in the evening by John Hoffman, a member of the paid department and attached to the Central Fire Station. Both men report the use of the helmet was a great success. So dense was the smoke in the building that if they had not had the helmet to use they would have found it extremely difficult and dangerous to have made their way to the second floor of the building.

The successful use of the smoke helmet may cause the fire board to make arrangements to purchase a few for the use of the members of the department. The helmet is placed over the head and is so arranged that no smoke can penetrate through it. It is first filled with air before it is slipped over the head. Glass windows in the helmet protect the eyes.

ALLIES MAY ABANDON GALLIOLI

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Constantinople, Oct. 23.—Allied commanders on Gallipoli peninsula have notified their respective governments that unless they receive reinforcements immediately they will be compelled to abandon important positions which have been held at heavy cost, according to the Turkish war office.

The war office claims to have intercepted several wireless messages sent from French and British headquarters on the peninsula in which warning was given that the allied soldiers lacked food and ammunition supplies, lack of which would compel a retreat to the coast in the near future.

Most of the attacks by the Ottoman forces have shown that the British and French troops are carefully husbanding their ammunition. Instead of meeting the assaults with a heavy fire, the defending forces are coming to rely more and more on the bayonet.

Como, Italy, Oct. 23.—Porter Charlton, confessed slayer of his wife, Mary Scott Charlton, may know his fate tonight. Practically all the important evidence in his case was concluded at last night's session and when the trial was resumed today Baron Sciacca, the presiding judge, informed the lawyers that he would tolerate no delay. The court made it clear that the trial would be rushed to a conclusion.

Ruth Deyo With Boston Symphony.
Miss Ruth Deyo, a former Palm Springs girl, who has many friends in this city, and who has made such a name for herself as a pianist, has gained added laurels this season. Miss Deyo, the protegee and pupil of the late Edward Mac Dowell, the great American composer, has been re-engaged for the third time to play with Boston Symphony Orchestra during the 1915-16 season. Press notices from great European musical centers as well as here in America are most flattering in their comments upon Miss Deyo's playing. Miss Deyo has still a few open dates for concert recitals, and it is hoped that she may be heard here in Kingston some time this winter.

FORMER RED MAN'S PLAN FOR DEFENSE

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Albany, Oct. 23.—John A. Phillips, who said that he was a resident of Kingston, laid before Assistant Adjutant General Howard today a scheme whereby which there might be a standing army or reserves. He said that he was willing to assist in the arming of fraternal organizations so that they might be drilled in preparation for war.

"I come from Kingston," said Phillips, "and at one time I belonged to the Red Men. I don't belong to anything now, but it struck me that it would be a good thing to arm all fraternal organizations. There are thousands of members in the state and in fact throughout the country."

Colonel Howard said he thought it sounded all right. He did not tell his visitor, however, that there is a law in this state which prohibits the arming of any organization except the state militia.

Unless the law is changed, the scheme that Phillips suggested is not likely to be tried out. The national guard is at the beck and call of the state for strike duty and in case it is needed for war. Independent fraternal organizations are not under the jurisdiction of the state and therefore if armed, might or might not respond to the demand for service as they saw fit. To arm them might be a disadvantage rather than an advantage were they permitted to be independent and not subject to the control of the state.

Interesting Kindergarten Talk.
Miss Dora Costello, at the Mothers' Meeting held at her Kindergarten, No. 301 Washington avenue, on Thursday afternoon, introduced to the mothers and friends of the school, her former Kindergarten teacher, Mrs. Annie Swayze, of Orange, N. J. Miss Swayze, pianist of the Kindergarten assisted in receiving the guests. Mrs. Preck, who spoke on "The Kindergarten, Its Relation to the Child, the Home, the State," has been engaged in normal teaching for years, and is one of the corps of teachers of the Order of the Kings' Daughters. A brief outline was given of the Kindergarten methods, whereby the little child becomes acquainted with color and form first. Drawing leads to writing, the first step in mental concentration, and finer dexterity is also gained. Through other games and work patience, perseverance, fellowship in work and many other qualities of mind and heart are instilled and gradually become habits of conduct. The Kindergarten helps the home in the cultivation of the child, politeness, self-denial, consideration of others, and in the school each child has offered the opportunity to develop any talent it may possess for leadership. Even the smallest child, may through the Kindergarten learn something of his duty to the state, from his child appreciation of the rights of others, etc., in his association with his school mates. Following the address, an informal discussion was participated in, while refreshments were served.

SCIENCE DID IT

For years many people withheld themselves from the use of pure beer because they confused its nature and consequences with that of strong stimulants.

The flood of scientific light shed in recent years upon the health and food values of pure beer is lifting thousands out of the mires of prejudice, up and into the warm arms of Mother Nature and new life and happiness.

DISEASE TRACED TO RAW MILK

The last bulletin of the State Department of Health indicates most clearly that the day of pasteurized milk is close at hand. It declares, under the signature of Dr. Herman N. Biggs, state health commissioner, that ninety-nine cases out of a hundred of communicable diseases such as diphtheria, typhoid fever and scarlet fever are due to one of two causes—the use of an infected milk supply or personal contact with a previous case.

An outbreak of reptile sore throat in Westchester county spread by contact, and the organisms due to milk produced by a cow with an infected udder; scarlet fever in Putnam county, produced by milk; an outbreak of diphtheria in Rockland county, produced by milk. Dr. Biggs says, "The remedies which completely guard us against such diseases are simply pasteurization of milk and isolation of early cases of disease."

Pasteurized milk is the only safe source of supply," repeats the bulletin. "In most of the reported outbreaks of reptile sore throat the disease has been spread chiefly by unpasteurized milk."

About the middle of March, when the report of an epidemic of diphtheria occurred in Suffolk and Hampden. All of the cases were described as milk-borne.

Dr. Biggs emphatically declares: "Knowledge and ability to control epidemics are praiseworthy, but prevention of the occurrence of the disease is of greater value. Milk-borne epidemics could be a thing of the past. Pasteurization destroys all disease germs in milk."

In describing the milk-borne outbreak of scarlet fever in Dutchess county, the report says: "The source of this outbreak was found to be a dairy farm which supplied milk to a central collecting station. This supply was from an excellent dairy; the cows were healthy, the stables had clean floors, were whitewashed and had strong stanchions and plenty of light; and the utensils were carefully cleaned, yet scarlet fever broke out at the home of one of the milkers. The consumers were unaware that raw milk of this kind might become infected. Such outbreaks will not cease until it is generally recognized that raw milk is a good medium for the growth of germs which produce infectious diseases. It is not safe to consume raw milk even from the best protected dairies, as no one can tell at what moment the milk may become infected, even with the best sanitary regulations."

All the milk sold in Kingston is Grade B raw milk. There are no dealers here who pasteurize the milk they sell. It has been generally known for some time that the state health authorities have been anxious that all milk sold to consumers should be pasteurized. From the report just issued warning the public against the use of raw milk, it is evident that the time is not far off when its sale will be prohibited.

MISS JANE RADECK.

TWICE SWALLOWS POISON WHEN YOUTH REFUSES TO MARRY HER.

Miss Jane Radeck.

New York, Oct. 23.—Pretty eighteen year old Jane Radeck is recovering in Flower Hospital from the effects of iodine, which she swallowed on the doorstep of John C. Walsh who had refused to marry her. The couple had been going together for some time and last Tuesday, in order to make him jealous, Miss Radeck flirted with two young men at a dance. Walsh, remonstrated and a fight ensued in which he was badly worsted and taken to Flower Hospital. Miss Radeck called to see him and renewed her importunations for him to marry her, but he refused. She drank ammonia, but the quick action of the doctors saved her. Last night she went to Walsh's home to make her last appeal, but he shut the door in her face whereupon she drank the contents of a vial of iodine.

C. A. has to offer. The conference will be held at the Y. M. C. A. building, 100 West Broadway, New York City. The principal speaker at the sessions, Mr. Connell is well known to many of the young men of Kingston having been here with Mr. Colton. Origin of the Clearing House.

In 1773 the bankers of London reported a house in Lombard street and fitted it with tables and desks for the use of their clerks as a place where bills, notes, drafts and other commercial paper might be exchanged without the trouble of personal visits of employees to all the metropolitan banks. Transfer tickets were used, and by means of this simple plan transactions involving many millions were settled without a penny leaving hands. The Bank of England and all other important banks in London are members of the Clearing House association. The first clearing house in the United States was established by the association of banks of New York in 1853.

A Short Lived Newspaper.

The first newspaper ever published in America never got beyond its first issue. It was called Publick Occurrences. It appeared in Boston Sept. 25, 1720. It contained a promise to publish in its next issue the names of all the liars in Boston, and the authorities, taking cognizance of the libel, wisely forbade the publication. The Boston News-Letter was the first journal to be regularly published on this continent. It was started in 1734 and was followed by the American Weekly Mercury in Philadelphia in 1737. The first American newspaper is only thirty years older than American journalism. The London Gazette, an official publication, having been founded in 1665.

SEEKING THE RIGHT.

However strange this may appear, the most effective deliverance of men from all the calamities they inflict upon themselves and from the most dreadful of all, war, is attainable, not by any general measures, but merely by that simple appeal to the consciousness of each separate man which nineteen hundred years ago was proposed by Jesus—that every man bethink himself and ask himself who he is, why he lives and what he should and should not do.—Tolstoy.

Apple Pie Order.

To feel in apple pie order is a phrase which dates back to Puritan times—to a certain Hepzibah Merton. It seems that every Saturday she was accustomed to bake two or three dozen apple pies, which were to last her family through the coming week. These she placed carefully on her pantry shelves, labeled for each day of the week, so that Tuesday's pies might not be confused with Thursday's. But those presumably large or intended for washing and sweeping days, eaten when household labors were lighter. Aunt Hepzibah's "apple pie order" was known throughout the entire settlement and originated the well known saying.—Exchange.

Brought Down the House.

On one occasion, when Arthur Roberts, the English actor, was performing the part of Captain Cross-tree in the burlesque of "Black Eyed Susan" at Glasgow he converted an awkward contretemps into a hit. In one of the scenes Cross-tree entered supposed to be incriminated and staggered about the stage. In doing so Mr. Roberts accidentally came in contact with the scenery of the inn, bringing the whole set down. The curtain had to be lowered, and the vivacious comedienne, came to the front and said, "Ladies and gentlemen, you see when we come to Glasgow we always bring down the house."

VOTE FOR GOOD GOVERNMENT.

There are few things more important than the duty which the taxpayers of Ulster County owe to themselves to re-elect Henry R. DeWitt and Abram P. LeFevre to the Assembly. If by any mischance the lower branch of the Legislature should be Democratic a stop would be put to numerous reforms which Governor Whitman has under way. When the Republican party came into power last January it found the business of the State in absolute chaos. Scandal had followed scandal throughout the Democratic regime. Unnecessary departments had been created to furnish sinecures for Tammany henchmen who did nothing in return for their salaries. There was not enough money in the public treasury to last through the fiscal year. Some branches of the Government lacked money to buy postage stamps for their necessary correspondence, because Governor Glynn had tried to buncle the people by his prevention of a direct tax into the belief that he was economical. He failed to fool the voters last year, but he and other Democratic leaders are endeavoring to make the same deception "go" this year, in spite of the fact that the Comptroller has had to borrow money to pay the last obligations of the State. We do not believe that the memory of the voters is so short that they will reverse their verdict of last year.

Moreover, there is no comparison between the candidates in the matter of ability and experience. The Democratic candidate in the First district has had no experience whatever in public affairs. The Democratic candidate in the Second district has served a year in the Assembly, but it is an indisputable fact that beyond introducing a bill to make cat owners buy licenses—a measure which brought ridicule upon him from all quarters—he did nothing. With the interests of Ulster County being constantly attacked by tax-dodging New York City, we have an imperative need at Albany for representatives with the character and ability to protect us. Party distinctions should be forgotten in a situation like this, and unprecedented majorities should be given to Messrs. DeWitt and LeFevre. The house-cleaning at the Capital is not yet finished, and the special interests of our County are still in peril.

Quite a number of Democratic "orators," including "Judge" Gathright of this county, "view with horror" that provision of the proposed new Constitution which makes the Governor an "autocrat" by empowering him to appoint some of the State officers and all the heads of departments. To hear the utterances of these windjammers an ignorant person would infer that all liberty was about to end and that we were to have a despotic form of government. Of course, all of us except the congenial fools know that the President of the United States appoints all the members of his cabinet and all the heads of departments, besides naming postmasters and other petty officials all over the country, yet we still have a fair measure of liberty. Nobody in the country would argue for a moment that it would be a good thing to elect the Secretary of State, and the other cabinet officers, instead of having them appointed, and that is true of the Nation is just as true of the State.

It is a curious thing that the Tammany leaders, Smith, Wagner and Foley, who are using most of their time in making speeches against the new Constitution, were all members of the Convention and voted for its submission. There is always a reason for such a flop, and in this case it appears to be the fact that under the existing Constitution, providing the proposed new one is defeated, there must be a vote at the general election next year upon the question whether a Constitutional convention shall be held in 1915 composed of delegates elected in 1917. No one can tell what will happen politically as far ahead as that, and Tammany feels that it is among the possibilities that it might control another convention and by such means fasten its grip on the State. It will be remembered that there was no general demand for a convention this year, and that the proposition would have been defeated but for the energetic efforts put forth by the Tiger. Tammany always votes as a unit, while the rest of the State is divided against itself. Consequently, there is great danger that the proposed Constitution will be rejected. Such will certainly be the event unless the non-Tammany voters arouse themselves.

Those who vote against the bond issue of $27,000,000 for the completion of the Barge Canal will curse themselves heartily next year or the year after. The canal is ninety per cent completed, and the money to finish the job is surely going to be raised by direct taxation unless by issuing bonds we make those who come after us pay their share. While the canal may not be worth its cost, it is certainly worth much more than the balance required. It is bound to keep freight rates down. All experience shows that. Instead of crying over split milk, let us save the pitcher. If we voters turn down this proposition our representatives in the Legislature, unanimously and without regard to party, will put the amount in the tax levy, for it is inconceivable that any man big enough to get elected to the Legislature would vote to abandon the undertaking after it has progressed so far.

Two Gold Medals—Highest Award at The Panama Exposition, 1915

Glenwood Coal Ranges, Gas Ranges, Furnaces and Heaters, awarded Two Gold Medals, at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, San Francisco, Cal., 1915.

Glenwood Ranges are the product of New England's largest and best known foundry. They are designed by makers of life-long experience. They weigh more, are put together better and burn less fuel than most ranges. The castings are wonderfully smooth and easy to keep clean.

They are handsome, convenient and mechanically right—no modern feature lacking. Smooth cast, Colonial design, plain finish, compact structure, big roomy ovens, easy working grates and countless other features.

Owing to their sturdy construction and fine workmanship, they will stand hard usage, do better work and last much longer than the ordinary kind.

They certainly do "Make Cooking and Baking Easy".

Get one and make housekeeping drudgeless.

WOODSTOCK.

Woodstock, Oct. 23.—Dr. Downer lectured to the Boy Scouts on Friday evening, October 22. His lecture was along the line of caring for the body—something the boys ought to know.

There will be a woman's suffrage meeting in Fireman's Hall Saturday, October 23 at 8 p. m. The speaker is a very distinguished one who has been secured by Mrs. Wyle. Only one address could be secured by him for Ulster county and that address is to be given in Woodstock Saturday evening. His name is the Hon. Frank Bohm.

There is a no-license campaign in operation here. License is detested here so that the thirsty people can get their drinks more conveniently than by sending out of town for them. Those in favor of license are the drinkers or those who want to make money by selling drink. The moral people of the town are not in favor of paying the license fees of the liquor dealers, giving them a profit besides and then paying the cost of their dirty work. The whole burden comes on the town.

Chinese National Color.

For talismanic purposes red is indispensable in China. It is interwoven with the pictorial and must form a part of children's clothing. Written charms must also be in red ink on yellow paper to be efficacious against the malignant influences of demons and evil spirits which seem to surround the Chinese and for this reason all imperial decrees are written in vermilion.

Tea Kettle Talk Number One

If the bottom of your tea kettle were extended down in the fire like this one, the water would boil in just half the time, because the fire would be coming against that much more water-filled surface.

Kingstonian BOILERS

are made on exactly the same principle. The entire fire is surrounded, top and sides, by water. The prompt way it heats up the radiators and keeps them heated, would open your eyes.

Call around. Let us tell you all of this Boiler's economy points. You will make some money if you buy one. But you will lose a lot if you don't.

James A. Hyde met with quite an accident. The limb broke and he fell to the ground, breaking his nose and two ribs. At the writing he is doing as well as what we read or hear and poor memory of faces. It is awkward and embarrassing when some one comes in to the office and says, "Ralph, I want to pay for my paper," to stare at him and cudgel our brains in a vain attempt at recollection. Sometimes we can get a clue by remarking, "Let's see; to what post office does your paper go?" We have all had an excellent memory of faces. We may chat for an hour with a new acquaintance today, and tomorrow we would not recognize him at all, if we met him on the street. As one grows older and his acquaintance more extended this matter grows worse and is really sometimes quite embarrassing.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Norton and daughter of Brooklyn visited here over last week end and were at Marlborough High school very much interested in the display on Wednesday. Mr. Norton assisted the committee and Malcolm Northrip, the large committee. The display of fruits and vegetables was remarkably fine. Princeton is certainly doing good in our town high school. As that are of much interest and instruction to the students.

S. Northrip attended the harvest display in Marlborough. We think the Marlborough people should make a study of the difference between pumpkins and squashes.

Servants in the M. E. Church on Sunday: Sunday school at 10 and morning worship at 11 o'clock. This will be the annual harvest home and rally day for the congregation and Sunday school. The Sunday school will give recitations and music and Pastor Lull will make the address. Friends are requested to bring gifts of vegetables, fruits and clothes for the Five Points Mission in New York city, where they are very gratefully accepted and do much good to the needy. Epworth League meeting at 7 p. m. Topic: "The Call of Missions for Men and Money." Leader, Miss Gladys Townsend. These lectures are being made more attractive by extra music. Last Sunday evening Mrs. Walter R. Clarke, Mrs. Everett Hyatt sang solos. Northrip will sing a duet, accompanied by Miss Townsend on the clarinet and Mrs. Warren the piano. An invitation is extended to the young and enjoy these helpful gatherings on Sunday evenings. All are welcome to all services. Mid week prayer meeting is always held on Thursday evenings at 7:30 o'clock. Every member of this church and congregation as well as any others who do not belong elsewhere are earnestly invited.

Union service at the Friends' Church in the evening at 7:45 o'clock. This meeting is in the interest of the no licence campaign. Those who are against this move come and hear the talks and listen to the music. These Friends will be glad to see you.

Mrs. William Shorter, Mrs. William Lyons, Miss Fanny Rutters and Miss Caroline Sears are planning to leave very soon for the Pan-American Exposition and other places of interest on the way. They will be away several weeks.

Mrs. Anna Levetti is arranging to let the Willow Tree Tea House. She has spent a very satisfactory summer in her very attractive tea room, which has been highly appreciated by Miss Levetti's many patrons. She expects to spend the winter season with Mrs. Dodd, in Newark, N. J.

Miss Edna Dodd has been taking a needed rest of several weeks at her summer home here and expects to return to her school soon.

On Thursday evening, Oct. 28th, a union prayer meeting will be held at the M. E. Church for temperance in our town. Many will see the need of this, so are urged to come and prove what united effort will do. In this same line, a no license meeting will be held in front of the post office on Saturday evening, Oct. 23, at which the Rev. Leighton Williams is expected to speak. Owing to the fact that Dr. Williams is widely known to be a strong and earnest speaker, this important subject will be treated in a hearty and dignified manner. This is an opportunity, so do not fail to come out. There will be plenty of room, do not stay away and afterwards say: "I would have been there had I known what a good meeting it was to be." So don't forget to be in front of the Woolsey building on Saturday.

On Monday, Oct. 18, a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. Foster Clark.

Philip Lyons visited his mother over Wednesday who was very ill in Ellenville.

Another auction this Saturday afternoon at Miss Watson's.

Ye Editor is Embarrassed.

It has always been with us a matter of humiliation and mortification that we have a very poor memory of faces. It is awkward and embarrassing when some one comes in to the office and says, "Ralph, I want to pay for my paper," to stare at him and cudgel our brains in a vain attempt at recollection. Sometimes we can get a clue by remarking, "Let's see; to what post office does your paper go?" We have all had an excellent memory of faces. We may chat for an hour with a new acquaintance today, and tomorrow we would not recognize him at all, if we met him on the street. As one grows older and his acquaintance more extended this matter grows worse and is really sometimes quite embarrassing.

Bible Class Banquet.

The annual banquet of the Men's Bible Class of the Fair Street Reformed Church was held Friday evening. It was the most successful banquet ever held by the class. The speakers of the evening were the Rev. W. W. Wilcox of Walden, the Rev. J. J. Bout and the Rev. F. B. Geely of Kingston. The theme was most faultlessly served by the wives of the class under the able management of Mrs. H. V. Haines.

Raspberries in October.

If there is any fruit grower in Ulster county that can beat this we have yet to hear it. Mrs. Charles Abrams has been gathering raspberries from her garden in the rear of her residence, No. 54 Lafayette avenue, for the past few weeks in sufficient quantities for canning.

Lots of Heating Work.

The Canfield Store Company has a force of men at Port Ewen installing a Kingstonian hot water heating system in the Potter residence.

Remembered.

"The only visit I have paid to the old home town since I left it, 14 years ago," stated Sissors Smith, "proved a great disappointment. The only man who recognized me, after I had wandered for hours around the familiar streets, beneath the drooping ellums and all such as that, was old Uncle Riley Reszidew, who knew me the minute we set eyes on me by a debt of six bits which he claimed I had owed him when I went away."—Kansas City Star.

TRAINS LIKE FIGHTER

Billiard Champion Goes Through Movements of Athlete.

Secret of Willie Hoppe's Success as Billiard Player Attributed to Thorough Preparation—Must Love Sport.

In any game practice makes perfect, but there remains one more essential point after the practice reaches the stage of perfection, and Hoppe adds his physical condition. To some this sounds silly, especially for a billiard star. We know a fighter takes ten-mile road runs daily; that he takes a course of exercising—punches the bag, skips the rope and otherwise trains himself to take a punch and give a punch. And would you believe that Willie Hoppe goes through almost the identical movements of a great athlete in preparing for a championship billiard match? It's a fact.

There you have Willie Hoppe's secret of success. We do not know if Willie is a "model man" of the "neither smokes, drinks nor chews." But we have it from Robert Benjamin, manager of Willie Hoppe, that Willie does not lounge around various billiard halls with a cigarette in his mouth, or play the cabaret home past the closing hours.

Hoppe attributes his success to his daily living," remarked Benjamin.
"And I tell you he'll be the billiard champion until the day he announces his retirement. They'll never take the crown away from him. He's the mas-

Willie Hoppe.

ter of the field at present, still I do not believe he has reached the zenith of his career. You'll always find Hoppe practicing, and you'll always find Willie in perfect condition physically. Success for any champion usually causes him to indulge in many of the entertainments for him. But not Hoppe. Every morning it is a ten-mile walk, part of the way a trot; he takes his rubdown and bath and then it is four or five hours on a billiard table. He gets the required sleep, and this, with his natural ability, makes Willie the king of 'em all."

Willie Hoppe is an example for the present-day cyclists. We have stars of the cue in the field today trailing Hoppe, and in every match they have run second to the champion. Why?

"You've got to love sport like a boy to win any championship," says
Willie Hoppe.

Directs His Team by Use of Novel 'Phone

Directing the play of his team by telephone was the innovation tried out by Coach Fred J. Murphy of Northwestern university.

Lake Forest college was Northwestern's opponent in the first game of the football season.

Murphy, barred from the coaching lines by new western conference rules, installed a telephone on the top of a grandstand and, with a pair of field glasses, planned to direct the operation of his players on the field below. The telephone was connected with the Northwestern bench, on the sidelines, where Assistant Coach Mc-Devitt was to receive orders and make changes in the lineup as directed.

"From the stands I can look down on the players and discover a lot of things which I could not see on the ground," Murphy explained.

Joe Loomis Is Defeated.

Joe Loomis, holder of the Amateur Athletic union 100-yard dash championship, was defeated by Irwin Mahl of the Columbian Athletic club of St. Louis in that event.

The local youth won in 9.45 seconds with the national champion two yards behind him. The event was part of the annual handicap and invitation track meet conducted by the Columbian Athletic union.

Lewis Is After Ritchie.

Ted Kid Lewis, the English lightweight boxer, who is ready to fight Willie Ritchie and will agree to box him at 125 pounds or at catchweights.
Ritchie has not accepted the offer.

She Wouldn't Tell.

When Claire was about five years old she had a picture taken for her papa and was told not to tell. It was to be a surprise. That evening when he returned from the office she said: "Papa, we've got a surprise for you but I won't tell, won't tell, just wait until you see the proof."

Lines Held by British in Salient Above Lens.

Gen. French has described the salient driven by the British in the German lines north of Lens, and it is shown in the accompanying map.
It will be seen that the summit of Hill 70 and Hulluch were not held.

The recent violent battles have been fought on the north line. The British have tried to capture the whole of the salient, and of which they now have the main trench, and the quarries, in which they have a foothold. German attacks have been delivered here in an effort to smash the whole salient.

If This Is Your Birthday
OCTOBER 22

The governing sign of this birthday is Scorpio and it gives to both men and women magnetism and power to control the minds of others.

The nature is strong, forcible, loving freedom and justice, industrious and having no patience with those who are incompetent or lazy.

The Scorpio man makes a hard task-master for the ease-loving, a critical husband for the careless woman and a difficult friend to understand and please.

The governing planet is Mars.

The birthstone is a topaz or a malachite.

The Freeman Want Ads should be watched during the present month for there will be many opportunities and sales of small stores that will be profitable.

One of the most successful Halloween socials held in some time by the Christian Endeavor Society of the First Reformed Church was held on Friday evening in the church chapel for the young folks. The chapel was artistically decorated with decorations appropriate to the occasion. Shortly after seven o'clock the young folks began to assemble for an evening of enjoyment. During the evening various games were played which were enjoyed by the young ones. The good things to eat, which had been provided for the evening, were especially enjoyed by those present and each wondered how the other could eat so much. The evening was brought to a close by the singing of hymns and those who attended the social report having had a most enjoyable time.

ADVERTISEMENT WRITING.

Half the tremendous sums annually invested in advertising are wasted because efforts are made along wrong lines. Most business men put off until the last moment the preparation of their ads, and then call them "good enough." Why not advertisements possessing dignity and strength—something sane and substantial to which the publicity with good logic, and good sense that makes the possibility of failure? If you're interested, write me for terms. J. N. Zellmer, care of Kingston Freeman.

Saves Steps.

When the best and happiest housekeeper known to the writer was asked to tell the secret of her speed in housework, she replied: "I never iron with a cold iron, cut with a dull knife, or get to my kitchen to prepare a meal without a clean small hand towel pinned to my apron belt on one side and a similar dish towel pinned on the other. Try it, and you will be surprised to see how much time and how many extra steps you will save."
